Advise

SuPer's experts and lawyers assist with employment, salary, and professional matters. Locally, you are also helped by local union branches, SuPer-trained shop stewards, and occupational safety representatives.

Negotiate

SuPer represents practical nurses, social and health care professionals, and those working in the education and guidance sector with vocational upper secondary qualifications. We advocate for our members both locally and in national collective bargaining.

SUPER IS HERE TO HELP!

Impact

SuPer advocates for its members' interests both in workplaces and across society. The union investigates various issues and communicates its members' concerns to decision-makers, employers, working groups, and the legislative process. Additionally, SuPer actively participates in the development of vocational education in Finland.
